"He is not here; He is risen!"

Resurrection Focus Of Faith

By Carl Jech

Some years ago a young Methodist minister stepped into the pulpit on Easter Sunday morning and began discussing the meaning of the Resurrection.

Before the sermon was over some eighty people had gotten up and left the church.

Following what he thought was the modern trend in theology, this young man had likened the Resurrection to the annual coming of spring, to the revolt of people throwing off the yoke of a dictator, to the great things which people can do when they fully embrace their life and "really live."

Heart Left Out

Surely, in a sense, resurrection can mean all this. But the reason eighty people walked out on this sermon was that it had left out the very heart of the Resurrection.

Christianity down through the ages has preached the Resurrection of Christ as the central and unique part of its message about who God is and how He deals with men. Indeed, it has said, "If Christ be not raised, your faith is vain."

Every Sunday Christians throughout the world recite the sentence, "I believe in the resurrection of the body and the life everlasting."

Believer In Paradox

The Christian "believer" is caught in a strange paradox. It is commonly recognized that the essence of faith is a relationship with God and not a set of sentences "about" God or Christ or the Resurrection. What one believes about God, about the Resurrection, is not the same as his faith "in" God.

Yet the Christian who has faith in God cannot help but have beliefs about his God, and these we find in creeds and books. Indeed, these beliefs are often referred to as "the Christian faith."

The relationship with God is the essence of faith, but intellectual beliefs are a very definite part of the Christian's faith. Thus, while we would distinguish between "faith in" and "belief about" God, we cannot draw an absolute line between the two. (This situation causes countless problems for the human mind.)

Christian Believes "About" God

In spite of the fact, then, that it is basically a belief "about" God, the unique Christian witness is "I know that my Redeemer liveth . . . because I live, ye shall live also . . . I am the resurrection and the life."

There can be no doubt, I believe, that Christ and the Scriptures are speaking of something which is beyond this earthly life. The doctrine of the resurrection of our spiritual bodies, as prefigured by Christ, is at the heart and center of the Christian witness about God.

It is the mission of the Christian Church to preach its convictions about God — its theology. First it must preach faith "in" God, but part and parcel of this faith in God are specific beliefs "about" God, one of which pertains to the Resurrection.

Resurrection Central Belief

Above and beyond all other religions, Christianity in the person of Jesus Christ rings through with the joyful conviction about the nature of God and what He has in store for man: "He is risen; He is risen indeed!"

The young minister had confined his remarks about the Resurrection to this earthly life alone. This was his mistake, for, as St. Paul says to the Romans, "If in THIS life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable."

Eighty miserable people walked out on this young preacher.

Big Weekend Set For Mrs. Becker

Every year the Iowa Mothers' Association sends a delegate to the national convention with the hope that she will be chosen National Mother of the Year.

In 1938 Mrs. Grace Knoll Crowell of Iowa received this honor. In 1947, Janette Lindsay Murray of Iowa was named the National Mother.

Mrs. Becker Hope of Iowa

Now, in 1962, Iowa hopes to have another National Mother. Competing against representatives of other states, including Mrs. John Glenn, is Wartburg's First Lady, Mrs. Louise Becker, wife of Pres. C. H. Becker.

The Iowa Mothers' Association will hold its second annual house party to honor Mrs. Becker April 28 and 29. A full weekend of activities is planned for the more than fifty members, all past nominees for Iowa Mother of the Year.

Church Women Sponsors

United Church Women of Waverly, sponsors of Mrs. Becker, have set up the weekend.

Registration begins at 9:30

next Saturday morning. The women will be housed in the new dormitory addition to Centennial Hall. At 10:30 a.m. there will be a business meeting, presided by Mrs. H. Houghton of Red Oak, president, and Mrs. O. Lybee, 1961 Iowa Mother of the Year from Bettendorf, will also attend.

Women To Tour Waverly

After a noon smorgasbord at Carver's, there will be a tour of Waverly including the Lutheran Children's Home, the 788th Squadron Air Base, tea at the Lutheran Mutual Life Insurance Company Lounge and an optional campus tour of Wartburg College.

Saturday evening there will be an informal banquet at St. Paul's Lutheran Parish Hall, followed by the student production of "Brigadoon" here.

Sunday afternoon will be the high light of the weekend, as Mrs. Becker will be honored in special ceremonies. She will receive citations from the American Mothers' Committee and from the State of Iowa.

'Brigadoon' Set For Weekend

By Lynda Huntley

"Brigadoon," a musical fantasy, to be presented next Friday and Saturday at 8 p.m., in the Chapel-auditorium, is "shaping up well" according to James Fritschel, Music Department.

With lyrics and context by Lerner and Loewe, the famous Broadway production will involve a cast of almost one hundred students in acting, dancing and singing parts.

Jorgensen In Male Lead

Ray Jorgensen, sophomore, and Karen Strumpel, freshman, will assume major roles as Tommy Albright and Fiona Maclaren.

Other leads in the play are Don Hughes, freshman, as Jeff Douglas; Galen Hora, senior, as Charlie Dalrymple; and Rita Johnson, junior, as Meg Brochie.

Dances Are Scottish

Solo dancing will be done by

Nancy Baker, freshman, with the major part of Jean Maclaren; Jan Walendy, sophomore, as Maggie Anderson; and Orv McElfresh, sophomore, as Harry Beaton. According to Fritschel, these roles will suggest authentic Scotch dances.

Story Set In Highlands

"Brigadoon" is the musical story of two American men who travel in the Scottish Highlands and arrive at a mysterious village where all the people are living in the past. In this town of Brigadoon, the men search for a strange miracle, and the plot unfolds.

John Gill of the Drama Department and co-director of the production, listed such well-known songs as "Almost Like Being in Love" and "Come to Me, Bend to Me" which will be featured by a special pit orchestra.

Orchestra From Area

Fritschel added that this pit orchestra will consist of 22 members from the Wartburg-Waverly community.

Jean Ager, sophomore, formerly a member of the Ballet Troupe of the Chicago Lyric Opera, is handling the choreography for "Brigadoon." Stage manager is junior Phil Borleske, and art work is being done by sophomore Frieda Schmitz.

LEADING "BRIGADOON" CHARACTERS Ray Jorgensen and Karen Strumpel check over the script in preparation for next weekend's performances.

Presidents, Senate Elected

Class presidents and senator elections were completed Thursday.

Darryl Ahnemann, junior from Kiester, Minn., will head next year's senior class. Co-chairman of the junior-senior prom, Darryl has served on the Student Welfare Committee, was co-chairman of his class float and has worked on numerous class projects.

Meyer Heads Juniors

President of the junior class will be Nelson Meyer, a native of Unadilla, Neb. A senator and Chi Rho's junior member-at-large for next year, Nelson was his freshman class treasurer.

Seniors Pick Males

Elected as senior senators were Paul Mardorf, Manson; Darrell Jobman, Virginia, Neb.; and Jim Ward, Waterloo.

Junior class senators will be Lois Plotter, Fond du Lac,

Wis.; Dave Van Ahn, Lake City; and Paul Wilken, Danforth, Ill.

Sophs Also Choose Men

Representing the sophomore class will be Mike Becker, Racine, Wis.; Dave Hutson, Sibley, Ill.; and Harold Shudlick, Rice Lake, Wis.

Nominations for Homecoming chairman will open next Monday, and elections will be held Monday, April 30, from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the Student Union. This is a change from the schedule originally published, noted Dick Buchsteiner, elec-

Project Drive Concluding; Solicitors Procure $445

The student body project drive is nearing the final stages, according to junior Paul Mardorf, project chairman.

As of Thursday, $445 had been turned in by the solicitors with about one hundred dollars still out in pledges.

Carnival Clears $300

At the carnival last Saturday night, $368 was taken in. This amount will be reduced by about fifty dollars after expenses have been paid.

Total sum collected for the project should amount to about $850 with $100 going to the Jack Friedrichs Memorial Fund and the remainder to radio station KWAR.

Senior Donna Schilling, Valley City, N.D., was crowned queen of the carnival by last year's queen, junior Anita Owen. Freshman Jim Folkerts, Reinbeck, reigned as king.

Gamma, Ketha Nominate

The king was nominated by Gamma House and the queen by Ketha House.

Four students were chosen as winners in the costume contest and will receive one semester's free rental for an FM radio to be installed in the dorms.

Abbs, Hughes Winners

Arlene Abbs, freshman, won the best women's costume, freshman Hank Hughes, best man's costume, and juniors Christine Hemenway and Jan Horne wore the best couple's costume.

Students who have not yet turned in their pledges are encouraged to do so in the near future, according to Mardorf.

Parents Day Set

Parents Day will be held on May 2, the same day as Spring Visitation Day, according to Martin Ackermann, development director.

This is to give the opportunity to participate in a great variety of campus events. Students are urged to invite their parents since no formal invitations will be sent, according to Ackermann.

Who Is Christ?

Tomorrow is Easter, a day of great excitement — mothers flustered about the company coming for Easter, kids thrilled because the Easter Bunny came, many people preparing to make their once-a-year appearance at church to keep their facade as Christians.

But what's happened to you, Christ? Easter is supposed to be the day you conquered death. Have you forsaken man? Or has man forsaken you? Are you even real? Do you exist? Or are you just a phony your press agent, St. Paul, built up? If you're real, where are you, Christ?

Why'd you get up on that Easter morning long ago, Christ? Didn't you know that the organized church would all but kill you off? Why didn't you stay dead? Or, are you dead, and man's mind has just resurrected you because man needed something to hang on to?

The organized church has lost you, Christ. Sixty per cent of the people in the United States claim they go to church. But don't get so optimistic about those figures, Christ. They don't mean much.

You can bet that well over half of that number don't really know you, Christ. They are more concerned about the next church supper or women's meeting. They don't know you, Christ; they know organized Christianity.

They go to church on Sunday because it's easier than not going. Society molds these Christians because it's a sign of prestige sometimes. They go because mamma or the neighbors say they should, but they don't know you, Christ.

Sure, Christ, they go to church, they mumble their prayers daily, they use your name in other ways in everyday use, they go to Communion (but they go right back to their old habits by Sunday afternoon), they meet the standards of modern Christianity. They say they believe in you, Christ, because they do want to get to heaven when they die.

But where are you, Christ? Are you dead? Have you been buried by organized Christianity?

They don't know you, Christ. When did you die? Why?

(Editor's Note — Following is an interesting item taken from the faculty bulletin and set up over a month ago. It was always crowded out by too-long editorials until this issue.)

From the Faculty Information Bulletin — The distribution of grades for the first semester of the 1961-62 school year is as follows:

	Number	Percentage
A	697	11.6
B	2,292	38.0
C	2,240	37.2
D	610	10.1
F	186	3.1
Total	6,025	100.0

The overall grade point average was 2.448. In examining this grade distribution it should be borne in mind that under the present regulations a student may withdraw from a course within the first eight weeks of the semester and such a course will not be considered in determining the grade point ratio at the close of the semester.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Wartburg - Through Grade School Eyes

(Editor's Note—Below are several letters sent to the Trumpet by a Cedar Falls grade school teacher. There were several more, but space limitations made it impossible to get them all in.)

Dear Sir:
Perhaps your readers would like to see their college through the unspoiled eyes of ten-year-olds. In case that is true, I am enclosing copies of letters sent by my Cedar Falls 4th graders to our hosts at Wartburg April 4.

Sincerely yours,
Esther Karsten

Dear Miss (Linda) Shalkhauser,
I enjoyed it when you took us to see the girls' dormitory. My legs got tired of walking. Do your legs get tired of walking that far?

When I grow up, I hope I can live in the college dormitory, but before I go I have to know where I am going. It was the first time I got to go to a college. I hope I see you again.

Sharon Pearce
Dear Don (Hughes),
I think it was nice of you to show us around and I hope you will again. I want to ask you if you ever played basketball in front of an audience?

Are you doing well in school? I hope so. I think the pelican was big. I have never seen one before. If you don't know which boy I am, I have red hair and freckles.

I had never thought there would be something about our room in the newspaper but there was.

Rick Jones
Dear Don, and Dr. Petri,

Thank you for showing us the college. I think you are nice. I liked biology and chemistry. My dad says if I get my grades up, I might be able to go to your college.

I liked the gym too. I wish I could play in the gym. If I do come to your college, I will take biology and chemistry because I like chemicals, and I like to see bones and preserve things. I think it is fun. I liked the snakes they preserved. I especially liked the boys dormitory.

Mark Chase
Dear Dr. Petri,
Thank you for taking us in the science rooms. I think it was interesting. Even my mother thought it was. There was one thing I didn't like. It was the baby pigs.

We had fun but all that made me tired. The gymnasium sure was big. I sure am glad I was not sick or I would not have been there.

I am the one that asked why

KNIGHTMARES

Signs Of Spring Arrive On Campus

By Manny Brandt
Well, it looks as if spring is finally here. In case you're not aware of this phenomenon, it may be because you are not familiar with the traditional collegiate spring signs. If this is the case, perhaps you might profit from some spring signs that I have noticed.

One of the promising signs is that the fishpond has been found again. After much diligent searching, the maintenance department found it neatly hidden under a mound of decayed and rotting leaves, dead rodents and various cans.

Another indicative sign is the wearing of shorts by the girls. In some cases, this is a very pleasurable sign; in others — well, anyway, it's a sign.

During the day remains of independent study groups are to be found on the banks of the river. This type of sign ties in well with another spring characteristic known as "Individual Outfly Days."

This is accomplished by the deft development of an acute illness early in the day (preferably before 10 a.m. as no excuses are issued after that hour.)

These are but a few of the printable signs of spring. In choosing some key words and phrases to look for, the best are chug-a-lug, Outfly, riverbanking, "I have to start studying tomorrow," and "The girls are in the dry run; where are the glasses?"

During this time I have formed premature impressions about Washington through personal observation and by listening to authorities of different occupations who are thoroughly acquainted with the Capital.

One of the first impressions I formed was of the vastness of the physical plant of our national government. I came prepared for a tremendous mass of buildings, but not like it actually is.

Size Makes Impression

The size of the Capitol building, the magnitude and multitude of departmental buildings and the largeness of the Pentagon have left me asking "How did they do it?"

I have also been impressed by Washington itself — its beauty, its cleanliness and its friendliness. This morning Louis Cassels, Washington correspondent for United Press International, called it one of the two or three most beautiful cities in the world.

The reason Washington is as clean as it is, is because its only industry is government, and it isn't too dirty, at least on the surface.

Washington Friendly

Washington's friendliness is evident everywhere. In contrast to Chicago, people do talk to each other on busses. And, of course, elected officials go out of their way to assist constituents in any way they can.

For example, Congressman Walter H. Moeller (Dem., Ohio) arranged a visit to the Russian Embassy for eight of us. Mrs. Moeller entertained the same eight in her husband's office for twenty minutes.

Congressmen Christians Too

I also got the impression that many congressmen are devoted Christians.

Dr. Robert E. Van Deusen, of the National Lutheran Council, who coordinated the seminar and who is a Lutheran lobbyist, said, "The majority of Congressmen are nominally Christian. Many are active Christians and try to take their faith into what they do. When a Christian enters public office, he remains a Christian."

The two Congressmen who spoke, Representative Oden Langen (Rep. Minn.) and Moeller, showed by their statements that they were acquainted with Christianity. Moeller, who was a Missouri Synod pastor for 22 years before running for the House, stressed that politics is not dirty and that Lutherans need to become more involved in politics.

Voting Mood Formed

Dr. Ernest S. Griffith, Dean of the School of International Service, American University, took more of a depth and got below superficialities and generalities. He told us about a little-publicized breakfast prayer group. In these groups, Congressmen discuss frankly in what mood they should vote.

Finally, I have been impressed by the value of letters to Congressmen. Senator Miller's secretary told me that Miller receives many letters every day, that these letters are carefully read by his staff and that a condensed report is passed on to Miller.

Sincere People Also Write

Van Deusen said that the idea that only crackpots, over-enthusiasts or idealists write letters to Congressmen is not true.

"Mail is a Congressman's barometer," said Van Deusen. "He knows that public interest groups are fired up about one subject. He also discounts multiple letters. But a single letter written simply and thoughtfully is taken into consideration. People do matter, even in a democracy."

Griffith echoed Van Deusen in stressing the importance of a letter over the influence of a lobbyist.

These few impressions have been only a small part of my three days in the capital. Many other events—such as seeing the President, worshipping in the Washington Cathedral and talking with a Russian attache—have made the first part of my Washington trip unforgettable.

Knight Nine First After Four Wins

By Paul Mardorf

The Knights are on the top of the Iowa Conference! After sweeping both ends of a doubleheader against Parsons last Saturday, the Knights are now in sole possession of first place in the conference standings.

Even though the Oppiemens have a record of 4-0 in the conference, their record is not unblemished. In a non-conference game Monday against Winona State, the Knights fell, 5-3.

Pitching Wins Pair
In last Saturday's double win over Parsons, the pitching of senior Jim Borchering and sophomore Dave Langrock proved the downfall of the Wildcats. Allowing only two hits in the first game, Borchering led the Knights to a 7-0 win. He also aided his own cause with a triple.

In the second game, Dave Langrock gave up only three hits, while the Knights collected 12 hits in an 11-1 assault.

Bye Hits Trio

Sophomore Ray Bye banged out three hits, one of which was a triple after which he scored on a wild pitch.

Langrock gave up only three walks while putting nine Wildcats down on strikes.

Winona Wins Three-Hitter

The Knights could muster only three singles on Monday and as a result went down to defeat 5-3 at the hands of Winona State.

Lefty sophomore Bob Meyer started on the mound for the Oppiemens and put the first six Winona batsmen down in order. However, in the third inning Meyer got into trouble allowing a lead-off single and three straight walks.

Three Get Singles

Bye, Bill Fulcher, and Don Sowers had the only hits for the Knights.

The Knights are idle this weekend due to Easter but resume action next Tuesday with a doubleheader at rival Luther.

Luther is presently in a second-place tie with Upper Iowa in the conference standings with a 3-1 record.

Limited Play On IM Slate

Only eight matches were held in the National League in intramural volleyball action last week.

Team 5, led by Bill Westphal, won both their matches by defeating Roger Pagel's Team 9 and winning by forfeit from Ted Kalkwarf's Team 1.

Team 7, captained by Larry Anderson, also won two matches. It won from Team 1 by forfeit and then beat Norm Mielke's Team 3.

Team 6, under Roger Will, spit two matches, losing to Gerry Oberheu and Team 8 and then topping Duane Huth's Team 4. Team 2, captained by Jim Schnieder, lost to Team 3.

Tennis Team's SCI Win Could Mean Good Year

By Paul Baumgarten

After it's first victory over SCI in eight outings, the tennis squad seems to deserve some sort of compliment. At least, this is what I am told by one of the squad members.

Baumgarten

The last time the Knights defeated the Panthers on the hardcourts was in one of the two contests against them in 1957. The other match went to the big brother down south.

In the years since 1951 the netsters have posted a 3-13 record against State College. They won, in addition to the '57 encounter, one of the two in 1956 and the only meeting in 1952.

The overall record for the years from 1951-61 has been 34 wins and 50 losses. The only years Wartburg posted winning records were 1951, '52 and '57.

In '51 the hardcourters posted a 6-2 mark, the best of any of the athletic teams that year. Biggest news of the year, as later events would prove, was the advent of Jerry Ristau on the tennis scene.

The record of the next season was an improved 8-1. This was the year of one of the wins over SCI.

In 1953 the squad posted only a 1-6 record, but this was somewhat compensated for by a third-place finish in the conference meet and Jerry Ristau's becoming conference singles champ.

Ristau repeated as champ in his final year at Wartburg, and the team improved its winning mark to 3-5.

The next four years were quite mediocre. The best season was 1957; the worst, one year later. The respective records were 4-3 and 2-4.

In 1959 another freshman made the news by immediately jumping into the number one position. This was present holder of that position, Larry Mugridge. It didn't seem to help the squad's record, though, as Wartburg won the grand total of four meets in the next three years.

With seemingly the best balanced squad in recent years the Knights could be on the way to one of their better records. Another optimistic note — two out of three years when SCI has lost to Wartburg, the Knights have gone on to winning seasons.

Hurdle Relay Unit Wins Conf. Event

Knight hurdlers won the 480-yd. shuttle hurdle relay in 1:01.6 last weekend at the conference relays in Pella.

It was the first time in the school's track history that Wartburg has won this relay. Members of the winning quartet and the order they ran in were senior John Niemeyer, junior Norm Mielke, freshman Harold Shudlick and freshman Joel Niemann.

Two Relays Place

Other places won in Friday's relays were by Gerald Schara, tie for second in the high jump, third-place finish for the distance medley relay team and fourth place for the two-mile relay squad.

Senior Dixon Zander placed third in the pole vault, while Rieh Meyer of Buena Vista bettered Zander's meet record by two inches with a vault of 12' 7".

Zander First At Cornell

Zander shared first-place honors at the Cornell Relays Saturday at Mount Vernon with Dotson of State College of Iowa at 12' 6".

Junior Len Schmidt unwound a 6' leap that gave him a third-place tie in the high jump.

Sophomore Lothar Columbus placed third in the mile run that was won by John Mulholland, NCAA small college cross-country champ in 4:26.1.

Five Events Entered

Knight entries in today's SCI Relays are the 880 relay, mile relay and shuttle hurdle relay teams and the pole vault and high jump.

Vacation has limited the number of entries, but Coach Dave Olson said he expected good performances from Zander, third-place winner last year, and the shuttle hurdle relay team.

Next dual meet will be Thursday at Schield Stadium when the thinclads face a strong Loras team, including miler John Mulholland and company.

Netmen Whip Panthers

Wartburg tennis team, made up completely of Wisconsin men, made a successful debut in their first dual meet of the season.

The Knights won four of the six singles and two of three doubles matches to defeat area rival, State College of Iowa, for the first time in five years.

Roger Ditzenberger of SCI defeated Larry Mugridge, the Wartburg ace, in straight sets, 6-3, 6-0. Jerry Shinkay, a freshman, lost to Mike Schaumburg of SCI, 6-4, 6-0, but the Knights won the four remaining singles matches.

Don Dietzler outpointed Fred Blackledge, 6-1, 6-2. Glenn Kjornes, also a freshman, defeated Bill Noonkesser, Dave Shalkhauser topped Buck Martin 6-4, 6-4, and in the final singles match, Dave Braunschweig downed Walt Fortney, 6-1, 6-0.

In the doubles competition Ditzenberger and Blackledge of SCI combined to give the Knights' Mugridge and Kjornes the only doubles loss the Knights suffered.

Wartburg's Dietzler and Shinkay put their skills together to defeat Schaumburg and Noonkesser. In the final doubles match Shalkhauser and Braunschweig wrapped up the Wartburg triumph by dumping Martin and Fortney, 9-7 and 6-2.

Bowling Changed To Tourney Plan

Intramural bowling will be carried on in a tournament method due to an insufficient number of people signing up for the planned team program, according to IM Chairman Jim Ward.

Men and women's singles will be held on April 28, with the deadline for signing up being April 23. The men's, women's and mixed doubles will be on May 12, with May 7 being the last day to sign up.

Final session will be on May 19 when the men's teams and the mixed teams will bowl.

Indian Will Speak On Oriental Life

Dr. S. M. S. Chari, First Secretary of Education, Embassy of India, will be the featured speaker at Tuesday's convocation.

This program will introduce a block series of convocations on Oriental Culture. A film dealing with Oriental culture will be shown May 10. The director of the Institute of Asian Affairs will speak May 15 and the wife of the Dean of the Bible School in Shizuoka City, Japan, will speak May 17.

Dr. Chari earned his Ph.D. at Madras University at Madras, South India. He is assistant to the ambassador of India in Washington, D. C., and in charge of anything relating to education.

Academic Life Committee will sponsor a discussion with Dr. Chari in the Chapel-auditorium at 3 p.m. He will also visit some classes.

On Thursday a convo of worship will be held. Pastor Robert Dell, Christianity Department, will give the sermon.

Wartburg Senior Invited To Join PC In Philippines

By Elaine Melchert

Rosalie Froehlich, senior from Rockford, Ill., recently received an invitation to participate in the training program for the Peace Corps project in the Philippines.

This training period will begin about June 20 and last for three months. The training will be at a western college and partly in Puerto Rico. No one is accepted finally for Peace Corps' service overseas until successfully completing the training course.

Reports Come In

Miss Froehlich has received information concerning the Philippines, based on reports from Peace Corps volunteers already working there.

Three languages are spoken on the islands, Tagalog, English and Spanish. Most volunteers are needed as teacher aides, since English is the medium of instruction beyond the third grade.

English Mainly Taught

The aides assist Filipino teachers in instruction of English, math and science, especially in the village schools where English instruction is weakest. Volunteers also serve as models of correct English speaking and work with individuals and small groups to improve their English.

Most Peace Corps workers live in groups of four, with each one assisting in a different school. The houses are wooden, with nipa thatch-roofs. Most of them have a couple of bedrooms, living-dining room, Filipino-type kitchen and adequate sanitary facilities with running water. However, few have electricity.

Test Taken Year Ago

Miss Froehlich, who is 21, took the Peace Corps test last May and specified that she would like to have an assignment after graduation. She is an English major in secondary education.

This year Miss Froehlich has been Castle editor, a member of Alpha Phi Gamma and Wartburg Choir.

Peace Corps work is not new in her family as she has a brother who has been in the Corps since October.

Music Recital Scheduled

A junior recital featuring four students will be presented Tuesday evening at 7:30 in the Fine Arts Center.

William Burcham, a bass from Rudd, will sing "Consider O My Soul" from "The Passion according to St. John" by Bach; "Der Wanderer" by Schubert; "Der Schmied" and "Der Gang zum Liebehen" by Brahms; and two sea chanties by Dougherty, "Shendoah" and "Blow Ye Winds."

Two Will Play Organ

Two students of Dr. Warren Schmidt, Patricia Dieterich of St. Ansgar and Valeria Redmann of New London, Wis., will perform at the organ.

Miss Dieterich, a junior, will play "Prelude" by L. Clerambault; "Praeludium und Fugue in E" by D. Buxtehude; "O Mench, bewein' dein' Suende gross" by J. S. Bach; and "Aus tiefer Not ruf ich zu dir" by H. Micheelsen.

Miss Redmann's program consists of "Rigaudon" by A. Campra; "O Lamm Gottes" and "Dies Sind die Heil" gen Zehn Commandments" by J. S. Bach; and "Toccata" by F. Peeters.

Junior Vocalist To Perform

Kathryn Folkmann, vocalist from Clear Lake, will sing "Danza, Danza Fanciulla Gentile" by Durante, "L'Heure Exquise" by Hahn, "Extase" by Duparc, "A Memory" by Ganz and two numbers by Brahms, "Wie Melodien Zieht es mir" and "Immer Leiser wird mein Schlummer."

A junior, Miss Folkmann is a student of Robert Larson, Music Department. She will be accompanied by freshman Judy Lanaghan.
